Subject: Appreciation Letter for the Team effort during ISGCON Jaipur

I am writing this letter in reference to the logistics services provided by your company. I hereby would like to appreciate the services of your company. Especially I would like to mention the professional approach of your team namely Mr. Gagan, Mr. Rajkumar & Mr. Ravi. They have been really supportive during the logistics of high end equipments & in fact provide on-site support as well. Intact packing of boxes during the logistics movement is very important & your team does take care of it superbly. Customer support team also has been helpful in tracking our goods. Your transportation facility has been already proven among the safest & fastest. As we deal in the High end medical equipments, we need to have a professional & renowned logistics partner & we are happy to have you & your extremely efficient team with us. I am also satisfied with the efficient communication process & the paperwork conducted by your team.

So I would like to appreciate your staff for supporting our work & making it possible to deliver the products in least possible time & also for their extended support during important events like ISGCON.
